If you ask for an interview, you may face a multitude of responses

uninterested

They may be happy and enthusiastic

we're big talkers
oh, of course

we're big talkers

(these must, just a bit)

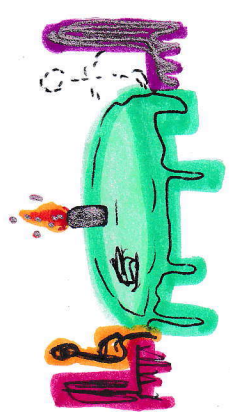

And when someone
ARRIVES

it feels like relief
magic, possibility

Then you

response

And the conversation will be sure to

Love

If you ask for an interview you may face a

MULTITUDE

of responses

But if you wait for a moment, someone will come

you'll be glad you asked for an interview
