

What next?

The lawmakers gathered to decide how the map of Tucker would like if it passes a cityhood ordinance.

The referendum for Tucker to become a city ended up passing by 74%!

TUCKER IS A CITY!

The Lore

In 2013, Tucker citizens got together when another community attempted to take ownership of areas that Tucker citizens considered as theirs. They had many meetings and put in a lot of effort in order to ensure the Tucker Community stayed together.

Referendum
YES <input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	NO <input type="checkbox"/>

meanwhile the other community's referendum failed

The Birth of Tucker

Sources

- Tucker.gov
- Anne Lerner Interview (former city council member)

Tucker - Our city at last

As of 2014, Tucker officially became a city!

The hardwork of the Tucker citizens in order to keep their community together resulted in their success.

It's important to not forget the history of how we as a community came to be.

