

and places
of worship.

Holidays,

Traditions,

When we had kids, we had to constantly
negotiate

and moved to Atlanta, Georgia to attend
Georgia Tech for Engineering.

Later, I applied to a singular college...

In response, my mother
moved me to a 2-year private school at the Hampton Institute where I was exposed to diverse students and a high-level math

Years later, I experienced an attack on the play-ground at my school Virginia elementary school

EVOLUTION

The Story of Roberta Barber

Life is full of choices.

Sometimes it takes making the unexpected
ones to find your own path.

My grandmother immigrated to Ellis Island at a time when children over the age of 13 were separated from their families.

She lied about her age
and began a new life in the United States.

to make out
the story at

EXTRACTION

More and more and to find the information
for the wedding
to be held at the house.
Life is hard

I expected backlash
from my mother-in-law
when we got married.

But she was overjoyed that our differences would force us to communicate about religion and find something comfortable for us both

There, I met my husband who was raised Christian rather than Jewish

Unlike some of my peers, I didn't have restrictions on who I could date growing up. This is probably why I felt comfortable dating someone who is religiously different from me.