

Everyone

has a story

This is

Phil Carroll

- Ancestors were the 2nd largest slave
owners in the metro Atlanta area.

Phil had some

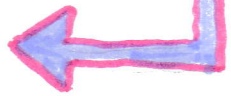

powerful statements
and perspectives.

Below is one of them that resonated
with me.

racism is something that is learned.

It's not something that you're born into.

I loved it
By Rev. Dr. R. G.

Every story deserves to be heard.

Especially the ones

that make you uncomfortable

The most memorable
part of the interview
was hearing that Phil sometimes afraid to tell his story.
It's important to tell his story. History can't be rewritten, but it can be used to make better decisions
for the future.

TO THE STORY
THE BURNING